

Samsung Galaxy S5 SM-G900F Stock Firmware/ROM - Version / Android OS / Firmware Date (Version) * Auto update every 12 Hours * Update process takes about 10 minutes. * Updating this file will not affect your current firmware. * Install the update by simply connecting your phone to your computer and updating it. * The update is very simple, just follow the instructions below: Upload SM-G900F SM-G900F Rolling Firmware How to install the ROM? Download the Samsung Firmware, then turn off your phone and connect it to your computer using a USB cable. Download the USB Driver; * The driver is in the root of the same folder as the tar.md5 file you have just downloaded. * Then, you'll see the folder structure like this: !USB Driver Folder!files/usb_driver.png) Select the tar.md5 file (FileType: tar.md5) and drag it to the USB Driver file to install the driver. * If the driver has installed successfully, you will see a green box (New Device). Connect the phone to the computer Download and install the Samsung Download Tool; * You can download the tool by clicking the link below: * Follow the instruction from the first screenshot. * Then, select the tar.md5 file and drag it to the Samsung Download Tool. * You will see the following screen: !Samsung Download Tool!files/samsung_download.png) Unpack the firmware to your root directory; * Unpack the firmware by following these steps: * Go to your home directory and find the tar.md5 file. * Open the file and drag it to the root folder of your phone. * The firmware will be unpacked successfully. Restart your Phone: * Turn your phone off and connect to your computer. * Find the stock firmware in your phone. * Then connect your phone to your computer. * Turn on your phone and follow the screen below. !Samsung Firmware!files/samsung_firmware.jpg) Caveats and Disclaimer There can be issues with your device. Stock Firmware may not include all the features and applications that

Download

