Cast: Nana Patekar, Madhoo, Ashutosh Rana, Naseeruddin Shah, Madhoo, Sunil Shetty, Suresh Chatwal, Bindu Director: Anil Mattoo
Plot: Wanted to kill Javed for the murder of his mother, Preeti. But Preeti is a senior class and his father is a senior class teacher.
From where she can complain to the principal? The name Yeshwant is a colloquial Hindi word, meaning 'a person who has an ego of his own', a 'competitive individual'. Production The film was announced after Nana Patekar made his debut in Anil Dave's The Train. It was to be directed by Anil Mattoo and produced by Vijay K. Ranglani. After the film was released, Anil Mattoo later made a couple of other films, before directing Sitakkad. Reception Critical response The film opened to mixed reviews, but made more money in Bombay box office. It was declared a flop at the box office. Upon the film's release, trade analyst Taran Adarsh gave the film a rating of 2.5 out of 5 stars, which means, "Above average", and commented, "Yeshwant is a good ride for those who are looking for a good dose of masala. It's a three-hour-plus film with decent length and decent suspense, a good sense of humour and a wafer-thin thread of realism. Nana Patekar shows so much promise as an actor that he leaves you hoping for more." Box office Its total theatrical run in India was 3 days. It collected 36 lakhs in India. In overseas, it collected 1.27 crore at the box office, worldwide, it was declared a failure, by box office standards.
