Wolf and Pigs: The Game is a global first-person adventure game with a unique storytelling take on the familiar fairy tale of Beauty and the Beast. The game combines elements from classic adventure games and first-person shooters to create a new kind of action game: one of exploration, puzzle-solving and tactics. Pegasus DreamTeam, the developers behind the acclaimed game Tales from Space and the creators of Wolf and Pigs, join hand with Silicon Studio, the worldwide developer of Gear VR games, to bring this unique story to life. Gameplay Players will take on the role of the Wolf, a young man whose village has been overrun by the Pig Brothers. In order to survive, he will take on the power of the great Wolf within his body - harnessing his Beast powers with the use of muscle-powering prosthetics. Players will need to perform basic tasks to upgrade their character. Doing so unlocks new powers, new elements to explore, as well as new features like weapons, armor and more. Team In the game, Pegasus DreamTeam has teamed up with worldwide acclaimed indie developer Silicon Studio to create Wolf and Pigs: The Game. Silicon Studio have created Gear VR games in the past with great success, such as Tales from Space and their latest VR adaptation of Final Fantasy VII, that is currently the highest grossing title on the platform. I clearly remember the social worker saying what is important is you've had the opportunity now to get on with it and heal; The worker indicated the first 12 weeks was lost, from the 16th week the rape can take over your life if not treated as a priority. He did mention any mental health problems caused by rape often go unrecognised. I had covered the fact I had been raped before when I asked the social worker if the pervert had gotten it into his head to pin my nice little mouth closed; he said yes had I and he meant it. I blacked out for about half an hour after the doctor told me he done my cervix in. It had been done 6 days before but I did not know why the pharmacist (said meant he only did it for my benefit) put on a cream for it. My mouth always hung open feeling uncomfortable and I did not understand why. The first week when I gave my rapist the opportunity to in himself I meant business; He thought I was going to get angry at him and hit him. I was beaming at the top of my voice thinking he a rapist and it made me angry. Beaming no anger no emotion. He was close to military school. I stood at the door of the house and waved him off. I'm not sorry for anything I did and think he is a psychopath. I never saw him after this. I have had a lot of counselling over the years. I had a therapist for about 2 years and my GP for a bit after and still are with my GP. My GP said I showed more signs of post traumatic stress, depression and
