The German journal translates the music and lifts them up in his air.. We rather seem to have lost any sense of proportion in our eagerness to be entertained at any price. "Where he walks he will grow flowers, and learn the ploughman's craft, And take his part in all the sports of the field, Or hold his peace in all the wars of the fight, Until he finds out what truth is, and learn to understand: And have a right to speak what he has thought;. I think we need to kill it, since the Nexus is not about exploration but about finding a habitable world in the first place. When we save the Nexus we save the Earth. If the Nexus stops working and starts spiraling because it has no world where it can inhabit, then we might be an endangered species in a couple of thousand years. (Besides, I would really like to see a new age where the Cold Empire is not the center of everything. Maybe then we can expand to the colonies and not have the Cold Empire "anchoring" itself. Sorry to disagree, but the link to the Nexus and Earth is in the name, not in the description. You did a good job with the game, but it suffers from a couple of problems: No (visible) atmosphere, Earth or anywhere else. No life. A planet at the edge of the Milky Way, 20 to 30 years
