Following a long weekend of speculation and movement, the Warriors did their best to put an end to the rumors when they announced they had signed free agent guard Jarrett Jack. The four year deal is reportedly worth $27 million. Jarrett was originally set to be on trial with the Warriors in November, but the team must have liked what they saw during the preseason as they joined in on the bidding for the world-class guard. While the Warriors picked up one of the best free agents on the market, there's still no indication of where free agents Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson will be next season. When healthy, they have been the Warriors' best players, and will likely have similar impact on the 2019-2020 season. Q: How to draw a specific rectangle using OpenGL ES? I'm currently learning OpenGL ES, and I want to make a app that makes a rectangle that I can move and change its shape or size. In other words, how can I draw a rectangle using OpenGL ES? I'm also using Android
